

TEACHER-FRIENDLY GRADUATE CREDITS

“Climb the mountains and get their good tidings”
- John Muir

Florissant Fossil Beds National Monument offers seminars that allow teachers to earn graduate credits through Adams State College, Division of Extended Studies in Alamosa

Tuition cost is $20.00 for each 1/2 credit, 7.5 hour seminar
BOCES recertification credit is now through Pikes Peak Chapter. Cost is $5.00 per credit/certificate

Friends of the Florissant Fossil Beds sponsor the series.

Regular fee for each seminar is $35.00

Current Friends member pays $25.00

Teacher current member pays $20.00

Join the Friends of Florissant Fossil Beds in the category of your choice and receive discounts on seminar fees. Graduate credit and BOCES tuition is separate and in addition to the above. Call for information packet. (719/748-3253)

Or check our website at www.nps.gov/flfo. Click “in depth” and “Seminars”.

2003 SEMINARS

June 7	Paleontology & Geologic History of Florissant - Herb Meyer
June 21	Fundamentals of Astronomy: Cosmic Journey in Space & Time – Bill Dexter
June 28	Basic Mammal Tracking: Intro to Science of Wildlife Tracking - Lee Thormahlen
June 29	Birds of Florissant: Identification & Habitats - Richard & Linda Beidleman
July 5	Geologic Wonders of South Park - Don McGookey
July 12	Lithics: Understanding Flintknapping & Indian Uses of Stone Tools - Bob Patten
July 19	Reading and Writing the Western Landscape - Susan Tweit
July 26	History & Discovery of Scientific Research at Florissant - Steven Veatch
August 2	Primitive Skills: Ute Basketry & Other Survival Arts - Robin Blankenship
August 9	Introduction to Rocks & Minerals - Pete Modreski
August 16	The Hayman Fire at Manitou Experimental Forest - Wayne Shepperd
August 23	Limnology: The Science of Water, Streams and Ponds - Steven Veatch

Seminars fill quickly. Call for your registration info and sign up for one or many classes. Come to the mountains nearby and explore natural science and cultural themes while you earn grad credits!